THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

- 6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
- 7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
- 8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
- 9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
- 10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
- 11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
- 12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
- 13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. Dear Homebuyer:

Congratulations on the purchase of your new home. This is probably the largest, most important single investment you've ever made and we wish you many years of enjoyment. Since you've chosen a quality Builder, a recognized leader in residential construction, your investment is unusually well protected. This booklet explains why and we hope you will take the time to READ IT CAREFULLY.

This insurance-backed limited warranty affords you protection for ten full years of home ownership. During the first two years, your limited warranty stands behind your Builder and protects you in the unlikely event your Builder is unable or unwilling to perform, subject to the conditions and exclusions listed herein. During the next eight years, your limited warranty protects your home against any major structural defect which may occur.

This Agreement includes procedures for informal settlement of disputes, including arbitration. Certain defects are covered for periods of one or two years only.

Please note that RWC must receive a written notice of claim within thirty days after the expiration of the applicable limited warranty period. For example, if the defect is one which is covered under the Builder's one-year limited warranty period, notice must be received by RWC within thirty days of the end of the first year, or the notice will not be honored. This notice must contain the following information:

- (1) The enrollment number and effective date of limited warranty;
- (2) The Builder's name and address;
- (3) Your name, address, and phone number (both home and work);
- (4) A specified description of the defect;
- (5) The page and section number of this Agreement containing the applicable limited warranty standard(s); and
- (6) A copy of your written notice to the Builder.

Additional information may be received by calling RWC at 717-561-4480.

Take a minute now to read this booklet in its entirety so that you will be familiar with its coverages and limitations. Your Builder will be able to answer any questions you may have about the limited warranty or specific construction standards and how they apply to your home.

Again, congratulations and enjoy your new home!

Very truly yours,

LIMITED WARRANTY INSURANCE PROGRAM

INTRODUCTION

Residential Warranty Corporation ("RWC") administers the limited warranty program as described in this Agreement. During the first two (2) years of this program, the Builder, as identified on the Home Enrollment Form is the warrantor. The Builder has purchased insurance coverage from Western Pacific Mutual Insurance Company, A Risk Retention Group ("WPIC") to benefit the Purchaser both by acting if the Builder fails to perform its obligations set forth herein and by providing Major Structural Defects insurance coverage, all as described in this Agreement. Section A describes the protection which this program affords to the Purchaser; Section B defines the terms used in this Agreement and sets forth the exclusions from the program; Section C sets forth limited warranty standards which will govern the interpretation and operation of the program.

THIS AGREEMENT INCLUDES PROCEDURES FOR INFORMAL SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES, INCLUDING ARBITRATION. PLEASE NOTE THAT CERTAIN DEFECTS ARE COVERED FOR PERIODS OF ONE OR TWO YEARS ONLY. CLAIMS FOR THESE DEFECTS MUST BE RECEIVED BY RWC, BY CERTIFIED MAIL, WITHIN THIRTY DAYS OF THE EXPIRATION OF THE APPLICABLE COVERAGE PERIOD OR THEY WILL NOT BE HONORED. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION MAY BE RECEIVED BY CALLING RWC AT 717-561-4480. INFORMATION REGARDING THE CLAIMS PROCESS APPROVED BY THE NEW JERSEY DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY AFFAIRS CAN BE OBTAINED BY CALLING DCA AT 609-530-8785. YOU SHOULD READ THIS AGREEMENT IN ITS ENTIRETY IN ORDER TO UNDERSTAND THE PROTECTION IT PROVIDES, THE EXCLUSIONS APPLICABLE TO IT, AND THE LIMITED WARRANTY STANDARDS WHICH WILL GOVERN ITS INTERPRETATION AND OPERATION.

It should be understood by the Purchaser that every newly constructed home needs maintenance and that it is the Purchaser's responsibility, not the Builder's, to maintain the home. Any damage or defect caused or worsened by neglect, abnormal use, or improper maintenance and operation on the part of the Purchaser will not be covered by this Agreement.

SECTION A: THE LIMITED WARRANTY PROGRAM

The Builder is the warrantor during the first two years of this Agreement. Western Pacific Mutual Insurance Company, a Risk Retention Group, ("WPIC"), provides insurance coverage insuring the Builder's performance hereunder during the first two years of this Limited Warranty and is the warrantor providing insurance protection against Major Structural Defects, as defined in Section B, during the third through tenth years of this Limited Warranty. Residential Warranty Corporation ("RWC") will administer the limited warranty program for participating Builders and WPIC. RWC is neither a warrantor nor insurer. The protection provided under the limited warranty program is automatically transferable to subsequent Purchasers during the ten year term of this Agreement.

1. PROTECTION PROVIDED

The limited warranty program provides you with the following protection:

(a) YEAR ONE COVERAGE

Commencing on the effective date of limited warranty as specified on the Home Enrollment Form, and subject to the terms and conditions listed herein, the Builder warrants that for a period of one year your home will be free from defects due to nonconformity with the limited warranty standards set forth in Section C of this Agreement. With respect to fixtures, appliances and items of equipment, the limited warranty is for one year or the manufacturer's written warranty, whichever is less.

(b) YEARS ONE AND TWO COVERAGE

Commencing on the effective date of limited warranty as specified on the Home Enrollment Form, and subject to the terms and conditions listed herein, the Builder warrants that for a period of two years, your home will have no Major Structural Defects (as defined in Section B of this Agreement) and that certain portions of the home's systems will be free from defects due to nonconformity with the limited warranty standards set forth in Section C of this Agreement.

(c) YEARS THREE THROUGH TEN COVERAGE

Commencing at the beginning of the third year following the effective date of limited warranty as specified on the Home Enrollment Form, and subject to the terms and conditions listed herein, WPIC will protect your home for a period of eight years against loss resulting from Major Structural Defects (as defined in Section B of this Agreement).

2. CONDOMINIUM COVERAGE - COMMON ELEMENTS

This Agreement shall only be applicable to common elements. Common elements are those portions of a condominium structure which serve two or more residential units, and are contained wholly within the structure. Limited warranty coverage for common elements shall be for the same periods and to the same extent as similar or comparable items in individual residential units. Examples of common elements which are covered by the limited warranty are hallways, meeting rooms and other spaces wholly within the structure and designated for the use of two or more units; and those portions of the electrical, heating, ventilating, cooling, and plumbing systems which serve two or more units. Examples of common elements which are not covered under this limited warranty agreement are club houses, recreational buildings and facilities, exterior structures, or any other non-residential structure which is a portion of the condominium.

WPIC #317
Rev. 9/20/93

3. BUILDER'S RESPONSIBILITY AND PURCHASER'S RIGHTS: YEARS ONE AND TWO

If a defect in your home arises due to nonconformity with the limited warranty standards during the first year of this Agreement, or if a covered defect in your home's cooling, ventilating, electrical, or plumbing systems arises due to nonconformity with the limited warranty standards during the first two years of this Agreement, the Builder will repair, replace, or pay you the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing the defective item; if a Major Structural Defect arises in your home during the first two years of this Agreement, the Builder will repair, replace, or pay you the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing the defective item, limited to such actions as are necessary to restore load-bearing capability to the load-bearing components of the home and to repair those elements of the home damaged by the Major Structural Defect.

4. CONDITIONS AFFECTING BUILDER'S RESPONSIBILITY; WPIC'S YEARS 1 AND 2 LIMITED WARRANTY; AND PURCHASER'S RIGHTS

In each instance, the Builder's responsibility and WPIC's years 1 and 2 limited warranty coverage are subject to the following:

(a) In the event of a limited warranty claim, the decision of whether to repair or replace a defective item, or to pay you the reasonable cost of repair or replacement, is solely the Builder's or WPIC's, as applicable.

(b) The Builder's and WPIC's aggregate total liability is limited to and shall not exceed the sale price listed on the Home Enrollment Form.

(c) If the Builder does not fulfill its obligation under this Agreement, WPIC will be responsible for the Builder's obligations, subject to a one-time deductible of $250. In the case of the common elements of a condominium, the deductible shall be $250 per unit affected by the common elements defect, or $5,000—whichever is less.

(d) Actions taken to cure defects will not extend the periods of coverage specified in this Agreement.

(e) When the Builder finishes repairing or replacing a defective item, or prior to the Builder paying you the reasonable cost of doing so, you must sign and deliver to the Builder a full and unconditional release of all legal obligations with respect to the defect. If WPIC fulfills such obligations of the Builder, you must sign and deliver to WPIC a full and unconditional release of all legal obligations of WPIC with respect to the defect when WPIC finishes repairing or replacing a defective item or prior to WPIC paying you the reasonable cost of doing so.

(f) In the event the Builder or WPIC repairs or replaces, or pays you the reasonable cost of the repair or replacement of any defective item covered by this Agreement, the Builder and WPIC shall be subrogated to all of your rights of recovery therefore against any person or entity (including the Builder if its obligations hereunder have been performed by WPIC), and you agree to execute and deliver any and all instruments and papers and to take any and all other actions necessary to secure such rights, including, but not limited to, assignment of the proceeds of any other insurance or warranties to the Builder or WPIC, as appropriate. You shall do nothing to prejudice such rights of subrogation.

(g) This Agreement provides coverage only in excess of coverage provided by other warranties or insurance, whether collectible or not.

(h) If a claim under this Agreement involves a common element in a condominium, the claim may be made only by an authorized representative of the condominium association. However, if the Builder retains a voting interest in the association of more than 50%, the claim may be made by unit owners representing 10% of the voting interests in the association.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if a claim is resolved by the payment of cash, in lieu of repair or replacement, the payment shall be made to or on behalf of you and any mortgagees (or their successors), as your interests may appear, provided neither the Builder nor WPIC shall have any obligation to make payment jointly to the Purchaser and mortgagee, where the mortgagee has not notified WPIC in writing of its security interest in the home prior to the payment of the claim. A mortgagee shall be completely bound by any agreement, conciliation or arbitration accepted by the Purchaser relating to a claim hereunder.

(j) Where a covered defect is determined to exist and where either the Builder or WPIC elects to pay the reasonable cost of repair or replacement in lieu of effectuating such repair or replacement, the cash offer must be in writing and the Purchaser will be given two (2) weeks to respond unless:

- (i) The cash offer is made pursuant to a binding bid by an independent third party contractor, which will accept an award of a contract from the Purchaser pursuant to such bid;
- (ii) Payment is being made in settlement of legal action; or
- (iii) The Purchaser is represented by legal counsel.

5. WPIC'S RESPONSIBILITY AND PURCHASER'S RIGHTS: YEARS THREE THROUGH TEN

If Major Structural Defect (as defined in Section B of this Agreement) arises in your home during years three through ten of this Agreement, WPIC, at its sole option, will repair or replace, or pay you the reasonable cost of repairing or replacing, the defective item, limited to such actions necessary to restore load-bearing capability to the load-bearing components of the home and to repair those elements of the home damaged by the Major Structural Defect.

6. CONDITIONS AFFECTING WPIC'S RESPONSIBILITY AND PURCHASER'S RIGHTS

In each instance, WPIC's responsibility is subject to the following:

(a) In the event of a limited warranty claim, the decision of whether to repair or replace a defective item, or to pay you the reasonable cost of repair or replacement, is WPIC's.

(b) The total liability of WPIC under this Agreement is limited to and shall not exceed the least of the following:

(1) the sale price listed on the Home Enrollment Form;

(2) the reasonable cost of that part of the building damaged for like construction and use on the same premises;

(3) the necessary amount to repair or replace the portion of the building rendered uninhabitable by the Major Structural Defect; less all amounts paid by or on behalf of WPIC under this Agreement.

(c) WPIC's liability in years 3 through 10 under this Agreement is subject to a deductible of $250 per claim. In each instance, the deductible must be paid by you prior to repair or replacement by WPIC. In the event of payment, the $250 will be subtracted from the cash payment. In the case of the common elements of a condominium, the deductible shall be $250 per unit affected by the common element defect, or $5,000—whichever is less.

(d) Actions taken to cure defects will not extend the periods of coverage specified in this Agreement.

(e) When WPIC finishes repairing or replacing or prior to WPIC paying the reasonable cost of repair or replacement of a Major Structural Defect under this Agreement, you must execute a full and unconditional release of all WPIC's obligations with respect to the Major Structural Defect.

(f) If WPIC repairs or replaces, or pays you the reasonable cost of repair or replacement of any Major Structural Defect, WPIC shall be subrogated to all of your rights of recovery therefore against any person or entity, and you agree to execute and deliver any and all instruments and papers and to take any and all other actions necessary to secure such rights, including, but not limited to, assignment of the proceeds of any other insurance or warranties to WPIC. You shall do nothing to prejudice such rights of subrogation.

(g) This Agreement provides limited warranty coverage in excess of coverage provided under other warranties or insurance, whether collectible or not.

(h) If a claim under this Agreement involves a common element in a condominium, the claim may be made only by an authorized representative of the condominium association. However, if the Builder retains a voting interest in the association of more than 50%, the claim may be made by unit owners representing 10% of the voting interests in the association.

If a claim under this Agreement involves a common element affecting multiple units, and all affected units are not warranted by the WPIC Limited Limited Warranty Insurance Program, WPIC's liability shall be limited to only those units warranted by WPIC. WPIC's limit of liability shall be prorated based upon the number of units warranted by WPIC.

(i) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, if WPIC decides to pay the reasonable cost of repairing a Major Structural Defect, the payment shall be made to or on behalf of you and any mortgagees (or their successors), as your interests may appear, provided neither the Builder nor WPIC shall have any obligation to make payment jointly to the Purchaser and mortgagee, where the mortgagee has not notified WPIC in writing of its security interest in the home prior to such payment. A mortgagee shall be completely bound by any conciliation or arbitration relating to the Major Structural Defect between the Purchaser and WPIC.

(j) Where a covered defect is determined to exist and where either the Builder or WPIC elects to pay the reasonable cost of repair or replacement in lieu of effectuating such repair or replacement, the cash offer must be in writing and the Purchaser will be given two (2) weeks to respond unless:

(i) The cash offer is made pursuant to a binding bid by an independent third party contractor, which will accept an award of a contract from the Purchaser pursuant to such bid;

(ii) Payment is being made in settlement of legal action; or

(iii) The Purchaser is represented by legal counsel.

7. HOW TO MAKE A LIMITED WARRANTY CLAIM; DISPUTE SETTLEMENT

(a) Pursuant to the New Jersey New Home Warranty and Builders Registration Act (P.L. 1977, C. 467) the filing of a claim against this Agreement shall constitute the election of remedy and shall bar the Purchaser from all other remedies. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the Purchaser's right to elect other remedies except that such election shall bar the Purchaser from pursuing the same claim under this Agreement and in accordance with the procedures related hereto. Election of other remedies shall mean the filing of a complaint, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third party complaint in any court that alleges matters covered by this Agreement in particular or unworkmanlike construction in general.

(b) Carefully read and review this Agreement and the standards contained herein to determine whether the defect is covered.

(c) NOTICE TO YOUR BUILDER

If you have a complaint which you believe is covered by this Agreement and it arises during the first two years of this Agreement, you should send a clear and specific notice of the complaint to your Builder. If you have a claim covered during years three through ten of this Agreement, see Section A(7)(j).

PLEASE NOTE: Notice to the Builder does not constitute notice to RWC nor will it be deemed to extend applicable coverage periods.

(d) NOTICE TO WPIC; TIME OF NOTICE

If notice to the Builder does not result in satisfaction within a reasonable time, RWC, as agent for WPIC, should then be given written notice of the complaint by certified mail, return receipt requested. PLEASE NOTE THAT RWC MUST RECEIVE A WRITTEN NOTICE OF CLAIM WITHIN THIRTY DAYS AFTER THE EXPIRATION OF THE APPLICABLE LIMITED WARRANTY PERIOD. FOR EXAMPLE, IF THE DEFECT IS ONE WHICH IS COVERED

UNDER THE BUILDER'S ONE-YEAR WARRANTY PERIOD, NOTICE MUST BE RECEIVED BY RWC WITHIN THIRTY DAYS OF THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, OR THE NOTICE WILL NOT BE HONORED. THIS NOTICE MUST CONTAIN THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION:

- (1) The enrollment number and effective date of limited warranty;
- (2) The Builder's name and address;
- (3) Your name, address, and phone number (both home and work);
- (4) A specified description of the defect;
- (5) The page and section number of this Agreement containing the applicable limited warranty standard(s); and
- (6) A copy of your written notice to the Builder.

(e) INSPECTION AND INVESTIGATION REPORT

RWC, as agent for WPIC, will review your complaint and, if necessary, send you a form by which you may request an inspection of the defect. Upon receipt of the form, RWC will cause an investigator, who may be an employee of RWC, to view the defect and to report to both you and your Builder. Upon receipt of the investigator's report, which will be completed within thirty (30) business days after the investigation, RWC will report to you and your Builder. The report will state the Builder's obligations. Upon receipt of this report, you have thirty (30) days to accept the report or file a claim for arbitration. IF YOU FAIL TO ACT, YOU WILL BE DEEMED TO HAVE DISCONTINUED YOUR CLAIM AND NEITHER THE BUILDER NOR WPIC WILL BE BOUND BY THE DECISION.

Where a claimed defect is filed that cannot be observed or determined under normal conditions, it is the homeowner's responsibility to substantiate that the condition does exist. Any cost involved shall be paid by the owner, and if properly substantiated, reimbursement shall be made by your Builder or WPIC, whichever is liable for the claim.

(f) ARBITRATION

Arbitration can be initiated at any time and must not necessarily follow the informal dispute settlement process. If you disagree with the investigator's report, you have thirty (30) days to notify RWC, as agent for WPIC, and the Builder, in writing, that you disagree. In such event, disputes shall be submitted for arbitration to the American Arbitration Association (AAA), or such other independent arbitration service as may be designated by WPIC, for resolution in accordance with the rules and regulations of the AAA or such other service. The cost of Arbitration shall be borne by the Builder or WPIC. Such arbitration shall be a condition precedent to the commencement of any litigation arising out of or connected with the rights and obligations created by this Agreement. Upon delivery of an arbitration award ("Award") to the parties, any party may within twenty (20) days request an appeal of the Award. The cost of appeal of the Arbitrator's decision will be determined by the arbitration service and advanced by the party making application for appeal. A request for appeal must be sent, together with the appropriate administrative fee, to RWC, with copies of the request simultaneously being sent to all other parties. Upon receipt of the request for appeal and the appropriate administrative fee, RWC will forward the application to the AAA, or other service, for administration. The AAA, or other service, will appoint an appellate arbitrator, in accordance with its procedures, to review the matter, and visit the home and view the subject matter of the Purchaser's complaint. Within ten (10) days of receipt of notice of appeal from the AAA, or other service, the other parties must deliver a written reply to the appeal to the AAA, or other service, and simultaneously send it to all other parties. The AAA, or other service, will transmit copies of the appeal and reply to the Appellate Arbitrator. The Appellate Arbitrator shall render a decision regarding the application for appeal within ten (10) days from receipt of application for appeal and reply, if no party wishes a site hearing, or within twenty (20) days after the site hearing. The Appellate Arbitrator may not review any new or different complaints, but may modify or change the Award if he or she finds that the Award exceeds or does not meet the scope of the Agreement or its coverage. The AAA, or other such party, will notify all parties of the decision of the Appellate Arbitrator, which will be final. The Builder and WPIC have agreed to be bound by the final award of arbitration or appellate arbitration, as applicable, in all states. Judgment upon the final award rendered in arbitration may be entered in any court having jurisdiction in those states where such arbitration is binding upon all parties thereto.

(g) ACCEPTANCE OF DECISION

If you accept the arbitration decision, you must sign a copy which will be provided for this purpose and return it to RWC, as agent for WPIC, within thirty (30) days of its date. The Builder will then perform as required by the decision, but neither WPIC nor the Builder will be responsible for damages caused or made worse by your delay in accepting the decision. If the decision places a time period on your Builder's performance, the time allowed will be measured from the date RWC receives your acceptance of the decision. Sixty days will be the standard time for compliance.

(h) RIGHT OF ACCESS

You must provide the Builder, or if applicable, WPIC, with reasonable weekday access during normal business hours in order to perform its obligations under this Agreement. Failure by you to provide such access to the Builder or WPIC may relieve the Builder or WPIC of its obligations under this Agreement.

(i) ADDITIONAL PROTECTION: WPIC

If the Builder does not fulfill its obligations under this Agreement, WPIC will be responsible for the Builder's obligations, subject to a one-time deductible as described in Section A(4) (c).

(j) NOTICE OF MAJOR STRUCTURAL DEFECT CLAIM TO WPIC: TIME OF NOTICE

If you have a claim as a result of a Major Structural Defect occurring during the third through tenth years of this Agreement, you should notify RWC, as agent for WPIC, and RWC will investigate the claim. All such claims must be presented in writing to RWC (not the Builder) by certified mail, return receipt requested, within a reasonable time after the Major Structural Defect arises but in no event later than thirty days after the expiration of the term of this Agreement. Claims received after this period will not be honored. In the event RWC, as agent for WPIC, disagrees with your claim, the dispute resolution procedures of Sections A(7)(f) and (g) will apply between WPIC and you.

(k) All limited warranty repairs made will be in accordance with the Uniform Construction Code.

8. LEGAL ACTIONS

This Agreement provides a procedure for you to give notice to both the Builder and WPIC of potential claims, to have an inspection at no cost to you, and to give the Builder or WPIC, as appropriate, an opportunity to fulfill their obligations hereunder. If you institute legal proceedings against the Builder or WPIC for any obligation arising or claimed to have arisen under this Agreement prior to giving the Builder or WPIC the proper notices and opportunities to cure provided under this Agreement, you agree to indemnify the Builder and WPIC, as appropriate, for all costs and expenses of such litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, regardless of whether you have an otherwise legitimate claim under this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, litigation shall include arbitration proceedings. In the event you strictly follow the procedures provided in this Agreement and you commence legal proceedings, alleging that the Builder or WPIC failed to honor their obligations hereunder, the arbitrator or courts shall have the authority to award litigation costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, to the substantially prevailing party in such litigation. In no event shall WPIC have any obligation to reimburse you if the Builder fails to pay to you litigation costs which may be awarded to you hereunder.

9. ROLE OF RWC

RWC, as administrator of this Limited Warranty Agreement, is acting solely as agent for WPIC. RWC is neither a warrantor nor an insurer. In the event you commence any legal action against RWC, in its individual capacity, you agree to reimburse RWC, or any other agent of WPIC, for all of its costs and expenses of litigation, including reasonable attorneys' fees, unless such litigation arises out of an independent wrongful action of RWC.

SECTION C. LIMITED WARRANTY STANDARDS

1. PURPOSE OF THE STANDARDS

This section establishes the standards by which it will be determined whether your home has a problem which is covered by this Agreement and the obligation of the Builder or WPIC to correct those defects. Where specific standards and obligations are not set forth, the standard shall be the accepted industry practice for workmanship and materials.

2. CONDITIONS APPLICABLE

The applicability of the limited warranty standards is conditioned upon the fact that your home is constructed in compliance with the Uniform Construction Code of the State of New Jersey.

3. ADDITIONAL CONDITIONS: PURCHASER'S RESPONSIBILITY

The applicability of these limited warranty standards is further conditioned upon the purchaser's proper maintenance of the home to prevent damage due to neglect, abnormal use or improper maintenance.

4. STANDARDS APPLICABLE DURING YEAR ONE ONLY

The structural and mechanical systems standards to be used in determining the adequacy of design, materials and workmanship for the structural components of the home and for the mechanical systems of the home including plumbing, electrical and heating and cooling systems shall be the provisions of the State Uniform Construction Code in effect on the date that the construction permit under which the new home was constructed was issued.

The following performance standards set minimum standards which prescribe the level for quality of materials and performances in workmanship for the construction of new homes. To the extent that detailed minimum performance standards for construction have not been enumerated in these Performance Standards, builders shall construct homes in accordance with good industry practice which assures quality of materials and workmanship. Likewise, the validity of any home buyer's claims for defects for which a standard has not been enumerated here shall be determined on the basis of good industry practice which assures quality of materials and workmanship, and any conciliation or arbitration of such claims shall be conducted accordingly.

The Performance Standards list specific items with each separate area of coverage.

| Possible Deficiency | Performance Standard | Builder/Warrantor Responsibility |
|---|---|---|
| (a) SITE WORK | | |
| 1. Grading: Settling of ground around foundation walls, utility trenches or other areas on the property where excavation and back fill have taken place that affect drainage away from the house. | Settling of ground around foundation, walls, utility trenches or other filled areas: which exceeds a maximum of six inches from finished grade established by the Builder/Warrantor. | If Builder/Warrantor has provided final grading, Builder shall fill settled areas affecting proper drainage, one time only, during the first year Warranty period. Builder/Warrantor is then responsible for removal and replacement of shrubs and other landscaping installed by the Builder/Warrantor affected by placement of the fill. |
| 2. Drainage: Improper grades and swales which cause standing water and affects the drainage in the immediate area surrounding the home. | Necessary grades and swales shall be established to provide proper drainage away from the house. Site drainage under this warranty is limited to those immediate grades and swales surrounding the home. Standing or ponding water within the immediate surrounding area of the home shall not remain for a period longer than 24 hours after a rain. Where swales are draining from adjoining properties or where a sump pump discharges, an extended period of 48 hours is to be allowed for the water to dissipate. The possibility of standing water after an unusually heavy rainfall should be anticipated and is not to be considered a deficiency. No grading determination is to be made while there is frost or snow or when the ground is saturated. | Responsible for initially establishing the proper grades, swales and drainage away from the home. The owner is responsible for maintaining such grades and swales once properly established by the Builder/Warrantor to prevent runoffs and erosion of the soil. Standing or ponding water on the property which does not directly affect the immediate area surrounding the foundation of the home, caused by unusual grade conditions, retainage of treed areas, or sodding done by the homeowner is not considered a defect. Soil erosion and runoff caused by failure of the owner to maintain the properly established grades, drainage structures and swales, stabilized soil, sodded, seeded and landscaped areas, are excluded from the Warranty. |
| 3. Grassed or landscaped areas which are disturbed or damaged due to work on the property in correcting a deficiency. | Landscaped areas which are disturbed during repair work is a defect. | Restore grades, seed and landscape to meet original condition. Where a major portion of the patio has cracked, the entire slab shall be replaced. |
| 5. Cracks in concrete slab-on grade floors, with finish flooring. | Cracks which rupture or significantly impair the appearance or performance of the finish flooring material, is a deficiency. | Determine the cause for the cracking, and correct (remove and replace if required). Repairs shall be made near the end of the first year warranty period. |
| 2. Cracks in bearing or supporting masonry walls. | Vertical or diagonal cracks which do not affect the structural ability of masonry bearing walls, are not unusual. Cracks in excess of one-eighth in width are a deficiency. | Repair shrinkage cracks in excess of 1/8 inch by pointing or patching. Where the structural integrity of the wall is affected, suitable repair or replacement shall be done to eliminate the condition. |
| 3. Horizontal cracks in basement and foundation walls. | Horizontal cracks in the joints of masonry walls are not common but may occur. Cracks one-eighth inch or more in width are deficiencies. | The Builder/Warrantor shall repair cracks between one eighth and three sixteenths inch in width by pointing and patching. Cracks exceeding three sixteenths inch shall be investigated by the Builder to determine the cause. Builder shall take the necessary steps to remove the cause and make repairs by pointing and patching, reinforcement or replacement of the defective courses. |
| 4. Cracks in masonry walls or veneer above grade. | Small cracks are common in mortar joints of masonry construction. Cracks one eighth inch or greater in width are deficiencies. | Repair cracks and voids in excess of one eighth inch by surface pointing. Builder/Warrantor is not responsible for color variations between existing and new mortar. However, it shall be made to match as close as possible. |
| 5. Cracking, settling, or heaving of stoops and steps. | Stoops and steps are not to settle or heave in excess of one inch in relation to the house structure. Cracks, except hairline cracks less than one eighth inch, are not acceptable in concrete stoops. A separation of up to one half inch is permitted where the stoop or steps abut the house or where an expansion strip has been installed. | Take whatever corrective action is required to meet acceptable standards. In a case where repair is made to the concrete surface, it is required that such repair match the adjoining surfaces as closely as possible or the entire area be resurfaced or replaced. |
| 6. Standing water on stoops, steps, porches and attached concrete patios. | Standing water is a deficiency if it is a hazard to individuals and/or causes damage to the home, or in cases where standing water exists due to settlement or heaving as defined under paragraph above. | Take whatever corrective action is necessary to eliminate standing water. |
| 7. Cracking or spalling of stucco and cement plaster. | Hairline cracks in stucco or cement plaster are common especially if applied directly to masonry back-up. Cracks greater than one eighth inch in width or spalling of the finish surface is a deficiency. | Scrape out cracks and spalled areas. Squeak proof floor cannot be guaranteed, an isolated floor squeak is not a defect. | Correct the problem if caused by faulty construction within reasonable repair capability. Where a finished ceiling exists under the floor, the corrective work may be attempted from the floor side. Where necessary, remove the finish floor material to make the repair and reinstall or replace if damaged. |

(i) SPECIALTIES

1. Fireplaces: Fireplace or chimney does not draw properly causing smoke to enter the house.

A properly designed and constructed fireplace or chimney is to function as intended. It is normal to expect that high winds can cause temporary negative draft situations. Similarly, negative draft situations can also be caused by obstructions such as large branches of trees too close to the chimney. In addition, the geographic location of the fireplace or its relationship to adjoining walls and roof may be the cause of negative draft conditions. In some cases, it may be necessary to open a window slightly to create an effective draft. Since negative draft conditions could be temporary, it is necessary the owner substantiate the problem to the Builder/Warrantor by construct-

When determined the malfunction is based upon improper construction of the fireplace then take the necessary steps to correct the problem. Where it is determined that the fireplace is properly designed and constructed, but still malfunctions due to natural causes beyond the builder's control, builder is not responsible.

The cooling cycle outdoor design temperature established by ASHRAE provides for a maximum of 12 degree temperature differential between the outdoor and the indoor temperature. There may be periods when the outdoor rises above the design temperature, thereby raising the temperature in the home. Orientation of the home and location of rooms will also provide a temperature differential, especially when the air conditioning system is controlled by a single thermostat for one or more floor levels. | Builder/Warrantor shall correct cooling system to meet the above temperature requirements during the first year of the warranty. |

Continued noise in the ductwork during its normal operation is a deficiency. | The Builder/Warrantor shall take necessary steps to eliminate noise in the ductwork. |
| 15. Ductwork separates, becomes unattached. | Ductwork that is not intact or securely fastened is a deficiency. | The Builder/Warrantor shall reattach and resecure all separated or unattached ductwork. |

(I) ELECTRICAL SYSTEMS

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Electrical conductors: Failure of wiring to carry its designed circuit load to switches and receptacles. | Wiring that is not capable of carrying the designed load, for normal residential use to switches and receptacles and equipment is a deficiency. | The Builder/Warrantor shall check wiring and replace wiring if it fails to carry the design load. |
| 2. Switches and receptacles: Fuses blow, or circuit breakers kick out. | Fuses and circuit breakers which deactivate under normal usage, when reset or replaced is a deficiency. | The Builder/Warrantor shall check wiring and replace wiring or breaker if it does not perform adequately or is defective. |
| 3. Drafts from Electrical outlets. | The electrical junction box on exterior walls may produce a slight air flow whereby the cold air can be drawn through the outlet into a room. This problem is normal in new home construction. | None. |
| 4. Malfunction of electrical outlets, switches or fixtures. | All switches, fixtures and outlets which do not operate as intended are considered deficiencies. | The Builder/Warrantor shall repair or replace defective switches, fixtures and outlets. |
| 5. Service and distribution: Ground fault interrupter trips frequently. | Ground fault interrupters are sensitive safety devices installed into the electrical system to provide protection against electrical shock. These devices are sensitive and can be tripped very easily. Ground fault interrupters are required on outlets located in the kitchen, bath and powder rooms along with all exterior outlets. Ground fault outlets which do not operate as intended are considered deficiencies. | The Builder/Warrantor shall replace the device if defective. |

5. STANDARDS APPLICABLE DURING YEARS 1 AND 2

1. Septic tank systems: Septic system fails to operate properly.

Septic system is to be capable of properly handling normal flow of household effluent. It is, however, possible that due to freezing, soil saturation, changes in the groundwater table or excessive use of plumbing or appliances, an overflow can occur. Periodic pumping of the septic tank is considered homeowner maintenance, and a normal need for pumping is not a deficiency.

The Builder/Warrantor shall take corrective action as required, if it is determined that malfunction is due to improper design or construction. Builder is not responsible for malfunctions which occur through owner negligence or abuse. Builder is also not responsible for malfunctions which occur due to acts of nature such as freezing and changes in the ground water table.

Exclusion: The following are considered owner negligence or abuse as an exclusion under the warranty:

- (A) Excessive use of water such as overuse of washing machine and dishwasher; including their simultaneous use.
- (B) Connection of sump pump, roof drains or backwash from water conditioner, to the system.
- (C) Placing of non-biodegradable items in the system.
- (D) Addition of any harsh chemicals, greases or cleaning agents; and excessive amounts of bleaches or drain cleaners.
- (E) Use of a food waste disposer not supplied by builder.
- (F) Placement of impervious surfaces over the disposal area.
- (G) Allowing vehicles to drive or park over the disposal area.
- (H) Failure to periodically pump out the septic tank, when required.

2. Leakage from any piping.

Leaks in any sanitary soil, waste vent and water piping are deficiencies and are covered during the first and second year of the warranty. Condensation on piping does not constitute leakage, and is not a deficiency, except where pipe insulation is required.

The Builder/Warrantor shall make necessary repairs to eliminate leakage.

3. Stopped up sanitary sewers, fixtures and sanitary drains are deficiencies.

Sanitary sewer, fixtures and sanitary drains should operate and drain properly and are covered during the first and second year of the warranty.

Where defective construction is shown to be the cause, the builder shall make necessary repairs. Sewers, fixtures, and drains which are clogged through the owner's negligence, the owner shall assume repair costs. Builder responsibility for defective sewer lines extends to the property line on which the home is constructed.

4. Refrigerant lines leak.

Refrigerant lines that develop leaks during normal operation are deficiencies during the first year and second year of the warranty.

The Builder/Warrantor shall repair leaking lines and recharge unit as required.

1. SECTION A(1)(a): Year One Coverage. The following language is added: Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein contained, during the first year of coverage, the Builder will correct problems with, or restore the reliable function of, appliances and equipment damaged during installation or improperly installed by the Builder. In addition, the Builder will correct Construction Deficiencies in workmanship and materials resulting from the failure of the Home to comply with standards of quality as measured by acceptable trade practices. "Construction Deficiencies" are defects (not of a structural nature) in the Home that are attributable to poor workmanship or to the use of inferior materials which result in the impaired functioning of the Home or some part thereof. Defects resulting from Purchaser abuse or from normal wear and tear are not considered Construction Deficiencies.
2. SECTION A(4)(j): The following language is substituted: Where a covered defect is determined to exist and where either the Builder or WPIC elects to pay the reasonable cost of repair or replacement in lieu of effectuating such repair or replacement, the cash offer must be in writing and the Purchaser will be given two (2) weeks to respond. Cash offers over $5,000 are subject to an on-site review by a HUD approved fee inspector (inspection costs to be paid by the builder or WPIC, as appropriate) unless:
 - (i) The cash offer is made pursuant to a binding bid by an independent third party contractor, which will accept an award of a contract from the Purchaser pursuant to such bid;
 - (ii) Payment is being made in settlement of legal action; or
 - (iii) The Purchaser is represented by legal counsel.
3. SECTION A(6)(c): The following language is substituted: WPIC's liability in years 3 through 10 under this Agreement is subject to a deductible of $250 per claim. In each instance, the deductible must be paid by you prior to the repair or replacement by WPIC. In the event of payment, the $250 will be subtracted from the cash payment. In the case of the common elements of a condominium, the deductible shall be $250 per home affected by the common element defect, limited to a maximum of $5,000.
4. SECTION A(6)(j): The following language is substituted: Where a covered defect is determined to exist and where either the Builder or WPIC elects to pay the reasonable cost of repair or replacement in lieu of effectuating such repair or replacement, the cash offer must be in writing and the Purchaser will be given two (2) weeks to respond. Cash offers over $5,000 are subject to an on-site review by a HUD approved fee inspector (inspection costs to be paid by the builder or WPIC, as appropriate) unless:
 - (i) The cash offer is made pursuant to a binding bid by an independent third party contractor, which will accept an award of a contract from the Purchaser pursuant to such bid;
 - (ii) Payment is being made in settlement of legal action; or
 - (iii) The Purchaser is represented by legal counsel.
5. The following language is substituted: SECTION B(1)(c): Effective Date. The Effective Date will be the date on which closing or settlement occurs in connection with the initial sale of the Home. In no event will the Effective Date be later than the date of FHA endorsement or the Purchaser's Mortgage on the Home.
6. SECTION B(2)(h): The following language is substituted: Loss or damage caused by soil movement, including subsidence, expansion or lateral movement of the soil (excluding flood and earthquake) which is covered by any other insurance or for which compensation is granted by state legislation.

7. The following language is added: SECTION C(5)(67):

| Potential Problems | Comments | Builder's Obligation |
|---------------------|--|---|
| Septic System fails | Freezing, soil saturation, underground springs, water run off, excessive use and increase in the water table are among the causes not covered by this limited warranty | Builder will repair or replace faulty workmanship and materials and conform with the Sewage Enforcement Officer's instructions as per design and installation only. |

New Jersey Addendum to Residential Warranty Corporation
Limited Warranty Insurance Program book #317 (rev 9/20/93)

THIS ADDENDUM IS APPLICABLE ON HOMES WITH A WARRANTY EFFECTIVE DATE OF APRIL 20, 1994 OR LATER.

The following is added to A.4(j): When the Purchaser disputes the amount of a cash settlement offer for a covered defect, made by the Builder or WPIC, based upon an estimate obtained by the Builder or WPIC and refuted by an estimate obtained in writing by the Purchaser, the dispute will be submitted to Arbitration. The cost for this Arbitration will be borne by the Builder or WPIC as applicable.

The following is added to A.6(j): When the Purchaser disputes the amount of a cash settlement offer for a covered defect, made by the Builder or WPIC, based upon an estimate obtained by the Builder or WPIC and refuted by an estimate obtained in writing by the Purchaser; the dispute will be submitted to Arbitration. The cost for this Arbitration will be borne by the Builder or WPIC as applicable.

The following is added as A.7(f)(1): Proposed repairs prepared by the Builder or WPIC to satisfy an Arbitration Award will be presented to the Purchaser. When the Purchaser disagrees with the proposed repairs based upon competent analysis of the warranty standards by the Purchaser's engineer, architect, registered builder or contractor, the elements of disagreement will be submitted to Arbitration.

The following replaces A.4(c): If the Builder does not fulfill its obligation under this Agreement, WPIC will be responsible for the Builder's obligations.

The following replaces A.6(c): WPIC's liability in years 3 through 10 under this Agreement is subject to an aggregate deductible of $250. In each instance, the deductible must be paid by you prior to repair or replacement by WPIC. In the event of payment, the $250 will be subtracted from the cash payment. 1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.
- If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.
15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.
16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.
17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.
18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.
19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn,

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor or designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

JOSEPH J. HANLEY
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Mar. 27, 1997

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. HOVnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

JOSEPH J. HANLEY
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Mar. 27, 1997

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price, in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction will (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be delivered to Buyer by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS.—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION.—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE.—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY.—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

JOSEPH J. HANLEY
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Mar. 27, 1997

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

maximum allowable resale price, the method of repayment described in Item 1(b) of the section entitled "Borrower's Promises", and the definition of a "restricted sale" for purposes of determining when the Affordability Controls are applicable, and the determination of the restricted period of time.

RIGHTS GIVEN TO LENDER

The Borrower, by mortgaging the Property to the Authority, gives the Authority those rights stated in this Mortgage, all rights the law gives to lenders, who hold mortgages, and also all rights the law gives to the Authority and/or Municipality under the Affordability Controls. The rights given to the Authority and the restrictions upon the Property are covenants running with the land. The rights, terms and restrictions in this Mortgage shall bind the Borrower and all subsequent purchasers and owners of the Property, and the heirs and assigns of all of them. Upon performance of the promises contained in the Note and Mortgage, the Authority will cancel this Mortgage at its expense.

DEFAULT

The Authority may declare the Borrower in default on the Note and this Mortgage if:

- 1. The Borrower fails to comply with the provisions of the Affordable Housing Agreement;
- 2. The Borrower fails to make any payment required by the Note and this Mortgage;
- 3. The Borrower fails to keep any other promise made in this Mortgage;
- 4. The ownership of the Property is changed for any reason without compliance with the terms of the Note and Mortgage;
- 5. The holder of any lien on the Property starts foreclosure proceedings; or
- 6. Bankruptcy, Insolvency or receivership are started by or against any of the Borrowers.

AUTHORITY'S RIGHTS UPON DEFAULT

If the Authority declares that the Note and this Mortgage are in default, the Authority shall have, subject to the rights of the First Mortgagee, all rights given by law or set forth in this Mortgage.

NOTICES

ALL NOTICES MUST BE IN WRITING AND PERSONALLY DELIVERED OR SENT BY CERTIFIED MAIL, RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED, TO THE ADDRESSES GIVEN IN THIS MORTGAGE. ADDRESS CHANGES MAY BE MADE UPON NOTICE TO THE OTHER PARTY.

NO WAIVER BY AUTHORITY

The Authority may exercise any right under this Mortgage or under any law, even if the Authority has delayed in exercising that right or has agreed in an earlier instance not to exercise that right. The Authority does not waive its right to declare the Borrower is in default by making payments or incurring expense on behalf of the Borrower.

EACH PERSON LIABLE

This Mortgage is legally binding upon each Borrower and all who succeed to their responsibilities (such as heirs and executors). The Authority may enforce any of the provisions of the Note and this Mortgage against any one or more of the Borrowers who sign this Mortgage.

SUBORDINATE MORTGAGE

The lien on this Mortgage is inferior to and subject to the terms and provisions of the First Purchase Money Mortgage executed contemporaneously herewith or any subsequent refinancing.

NO ORAL CHANGES

This Mortgage can only be changed by an agreement in writing signed by both the Borrower and the Authority.

SIGNATURES

The Borrower agrees to the terms of this Mortgage by signing below.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Borrower acknowledges receipt of a true copy of this mortgage at no charge.

about to reside at 51A WICKLIFFE STREET, NEWARK, NJ 07103

THIRTY-THREE THOUSAND SEVEN HUNDRED AND 00/100 Dollars.

The property is located in the City of Newark, County of Essex and State of New Jersey and is legally described as:

Unit No. 11, in Building No. 22, and the right to use a portion of the Limited Common Elements for parking of motor vehicles as assigned to the Unit in the Master Deed all within Society Hill at University Heights Condominium III together with an undivided 0.1964 percent interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto as may be amended from time to time as phases are added to the condominium, in accordance with and subject to the terms, limitations, conditions, covenants, restrictions, and other provisions of the Master Deed of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium III dated 12/20/90 and recorded on 12/21/90, in the Office of the Clerk of Essex County in Deed Book 5151, Page 509, et. seq., as amended from time to time. The conveyance evidenced by this Deed is made under the provisions of and is subject to the New Jersey Condominium Act (N.J.S.A. 46: B-1 et seq.), and the Planned Real Estate Full Disclosure Act (N.J.S.A. 45:22A-21 et seq.), both as amended; and any applicable regulations adopted under either law. The grantee's right, title and interest in this Property and the use, sale and resale of this property are also subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions set forth hereto and as further set forth in the Affordable Unit provisions of the Master Deed for Society Hill at University Heights III and all exhibits to same.

The GRANTOR promises the GRANTEE that Grantor has done no act to encumber the property. This promise is called a "covenant as to grantor's acts" (N.J.S.A. 46:4-6). This promise means that Grantor has not allowed anyone else to obtain any legal rights which affect the property.

The Grantee is subject to the terms and conditions in the Financial Agreement, entered into with the City of Newark and grantor of on or about September 16, 1992 and the Municipal Resolution of the City of Newark No. 7RBQ (A.S.) adopted September 16, 1992 which confers a limited tax abatement on this property. The Grantee by accepting this Deed acknowledges that the Grantee has received from the Grantor a true copy of the aforementioned Financial Agreement and Municipal Resolution; the originals of which may be examined by the Grantee in the Office of the Clerk of the City of Newark during regular working days and hours.

The Grantee, its successors and assigns shall devote the property only to and in accordance with the uses specified in the University Heights Redevelopment Plan until December 31, 2038; and Grantee, its successors and assigns shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex or national origin in the sale, lease or rental or in the use or occupancy of any part of the property or any improvements erected or to be erected thereon, or any part thereof.

The construction of the property may be financially assisted by a subsidy as a result of a Regional Contribution Agreement. As a result, this conveyance is subject to and limited by N.J.A.C. 5:92-12; and the rules and regulations under the FAIR HOUSING ACT (N.J.S.A. 52:27D-301, et seq.). As required by law, the property is to be occupied by and remain affordable to low or moderate income purchasers for a ten (10) year period beginning from the date of completion as evidenced by the date of issuance of the Certificate of Occupancy for the property which is _____.

THIS SALE AND ANY SUBSEQUENT SALE MUST BE MADE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ABOVE MENTIONED RESTRICTION AND ANY SALE AND VIOLATION OF THIS RESTRICTION SHALL BE VOID AND CAUSE A REVERSION OF TITLE TO K. HOVNANIAN AT NEWARK URBAN RENEWAL CORPORATION III, INC., WHO, DURING THE REMAINDER OF THE TEN YEAR PERIOD, MAY THEN RESELL THE PROPERTY TO ANOTHER LOW OR MODERATE INCOME PURCHASER. This restriction shall be a covenant that runs with the land.

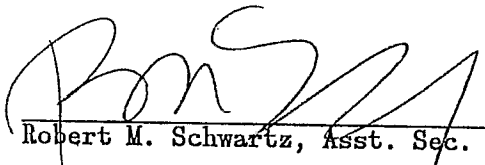

The Grantee promises, covenants and agrees with Grantor that anyone claiming title from, through or under the Grantee shall be subject to the terms and conditions embraced in the Master Deed, the Regional Contribution Agreement entered into by the City of Newark and another municipality, if any, the Regional Contribution Agreement Administrative Procedures, the Contract for Regional Contribution Subsidy between the City of Newark and another municipality, the Contract between the City of Newark and Grantor for Award of Regional Contribution Agreement Funds and any other applicable laws, rules and regulations of the New Jersey Council on Affordable Housing, the Department of Community Affairs or other bodies under the Fair Housing Act or other laws pertaining to affordable, for sale, low/moderate housing, all of which may change from time to time (and which may extend the ten year timeframe referred to herein). The terms and conditions set forth in this Deed, the aforementioned documents and agreements as well as the Second Repayment Mortgage, Second Repayment Mortgage Note and Affordable Housing Agreement to be executed by Grantee contain resale and other restrictions and shall be covenants running with the land.

Any revesting of title shall always be subject to and limited by, and shall not defeat, render invalid, or limit in any way, the lien of any mortgage authorized by the agreements and documents mentioned in this Deed for the protection of the holders of such mortgage, and this provision shall remain in effect for set period of ten years, unless the City of Newark waives same.

Being also known as Lot No. 22.17, in Block No. 406, on the tax map of the City of Newark.

| 26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION | 4 |
| 27. ATTORNEY REVIEW | 4 |

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction will (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date:

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee; which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapse any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction ~~(will)~~ (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

My Comm. Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

MORTGAGE IS SUBORDINATE TO A FIRST PURCHASE MONEY MORTGAGE OR REFINANCING

Prepared by: LINDA WAGNER

This Mortgage made on FEBRUARY 28, 1994 between MYRIEL GAYLE, WIFE AND ARTHUR L. GAYLE, HUSBAND (referred to as "Borrower") and CITY OF NEWARK (referred to as the "Authority"), which Authority is an Instrumentality of CITY OF NEWARK (referred to as the "Municipality")

REPAYMENT MORTGAGE NOTE

In consideration of value received by the Borrower in connection with the Property (described below) purchased by the Borrower, the Borrower has signed a note dated FEBRUARY 28, 1994. The Borrower promises to pay the amounts due under the Note and to abide by all promises contained in the Note.

MORTGAGE AS SECURITY

This Mortgage is given to the Authority as security for the payment due and the performance of all promises under the Note. The Borrower mortgages the real estate owned by the Borrower described as follows (referred to as the "Property"):

All of the land located in the CITY of NEWARK
County of ESSEX and State of New Jersey, specifically described as follows:
Street Address: 49B WICKLIFFE STREET
City: NEWARK Zip: 07103 Block No.: 406 Lot No.: 22.20
Also more particularly described as:

Together with:

1. All buildings and other improvement that now are or will be located on the Property.
2. All fixtures, equipment and personal property that now are or will be attached to or used with the land, buildings and improvements of or on the Property.
3. All rights which the Borrower now has or will acquire with regard to the Property.

BORROWERS ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

1. The Borrower acknowledges and understands that:
 - a) Municipalities within the State of New Jersey are required under the Fair Housing Act and regulations adopted under the authority of the Act to provide for their fair share of housing that is affordable to households of low and moderate income; and
 - b) The Property which is subject to this Mortgage has been designated as housing which must remain affordable to low and moderate income households for at least thirty years unless a shorter time period is authorized in accordance with rules established by any agency having jurisdiction (the "restricted period"); and
 - c) To ensure that such housing, including this Property, remains affordable to low and moderate income households during the restricted period, an Affordable Housing Agreement has been executed by the Borrower that constitutes covenants running with the land with respect to the Property and the Municipality has adopted procedures and restrictions governing the resale of the Property; and
 - d) The Authority to which the Property is mortgaged has been designated by the Municipality to administer the procedures and restrictions governing such housing.
2. The Borrower also acknowledges and understands that the Property has been purchased at a restricted sales price that is less than the fair market value of the Property.

BORROWER'S PROMISES

In consideration for the value received in connection with the purchase of the Property at a restricted sales price, the Borrower agrees as follows:

1. The Borrower will comply with all of the terms of the Note and this Mortgage which includes:
 - a) Within the restricted period starting with the date the Borrower obtained title to the Property, the Borrower shall not sell or transfer title to the Property for an amount that exceeds the maximum allowable resale price as established by the Authority. In the event of breach of this promise, Borrower hereby assigns all proceeds in excess of the maximum allowable resale price to the Authority, said assignment to be in addition to any and all rights and remedies the Authority has upon default.

b) At the first non-exempt transfer of title of the Property after the ending date of the restricted period, the Borrower agrees to repay 95% of the incremental amount between the maximum allowable resale price and the fair market selling price which has accrued to the Property during the restricted period to the Authority.

2. The Borrower warrants title to the premises (N.J.S.A. 46:9-2). This means the Borrower owns the Property and will defend its ownership against all claims.

3. The Borrower shall pay all liens, taxes, assessments and other governmental charges made against the Property when due. The Borrower will not claim any credit against the principal and interest payable under the Note and this Mortgage for any taxes paid on the Property.

4. The Borrower shall keep the Property in good repair, neither damaging nor abandoning it. The Borrower will allow the Authority to inspect the Property upon reasonable notice.

5. The Borrower shall use the Property in compliance with all laws, ordinances and other requirements of any governmental authority.

CONTROLS ON AFFORDABILITY

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapse for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproved of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 10, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor or designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

LISA M. WEEMS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 12, 1993

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction ~~(will)~~ (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.
- If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.
15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.
16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.
17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.
18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.
19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapse for any reason, including but not limited to change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction will (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

the GRANTEE

about to reside at 43B WICKLIFFE STREET, NEWARK, NJ 07103

ONE HUNDRED THREE THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED THIRTEEN AND .95/100 Dollars.

The property is located in the City of Newark, County of Essex and State of New Jersey and is legally described as:

Unit No. M2, in Building No. 22, and the right to use a portion of the Limited Common Elements for parking of motor vehicles as assigned to the Unit in the Master Deed all within Society Hill at University Heights Condominium III together with an undivided 0.1964 percent interest in the Common Elements appurtenant thereto as may be amended from time to time as phases are added to the condominium, in accordance with and subject to the terms, limitations, conditions, covenants, restrictions, and other provisions of the Master Deed of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium III dated 12/20/90 and recorded on 12/21/90, in the Office of the Clerk of Essex County in Deed Book 5151, Page 509, et. seq., as amended from time to time. The conveyance evidenced by this Deed is made under the provisions of and is subject to the New Jersey Condominium Act (N.J.S.A. 46: B-1 et seq.), and the Planned Real Estate Full Disclosure Act (N.J.S.A. 45:22A-21 et seq.), both as amended; and any applicable regulations adopted under either law. The grantee's right, title and interest in this Property and the use, sale and resale of this property are also subject to the terms, conditions, restrictions, limitations and provisions set forth hereto and as further set forth in the Affordable Unit provisions of the Master Deed for Society Hill at University Heights III and all exhibits to same.

The Grantee by accepting this Deed acknowledges that the Grantee has received from the Grantor a true copy of the aforementioned Financial Agreement and Municipal Resolution; the originals of which may be examined by the Grantee in the Office of the Clerk of the City of Newark during regular working days and hours.

The Grantee, its successors and assigns shall devote the property only to and in accordance with the uses specified in the University Heights Redevelopment Plan until December 31, 2038; and Grantee, its successors and assigns shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex or national origin in the sale, lease or rental or in the use or occupancy of any part of the property or any improvements erected or to be erected thereon, or any part thereof.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. 25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title; Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Dec. 6, 1996

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance restrictions preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn,

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will)(will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn,

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

State of New Jersey) ss.
County of Essex)

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction will (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.J.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

- 6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
- 7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
- 8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
- 9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
- 10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
- 11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
- 12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
- 13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
- 14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment; then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn.

cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

JOSEPH J. HANLEY
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Mar. 27, 1997

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months' estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

LISA M. WEEMS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of the final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

JOSEPH J. HANLEY
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Mar. 27, 1997

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will)(will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages, and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.
7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.
8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.
9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.
10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.
11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.
12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.
13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.
14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor or designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

LISA M. WEEMS
NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will)(will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with a closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

24. Insulation—In compliance with Federal Trade Commission Regulations Rule 16 C F R Part 460, the following information concerning insulation in your Society Hill at University Heights III home is furnished: (A) The Seller installs fiberglass batt type of insulation which is manufactured to have an R value of R-13 in outside walls (the Combined R value of outside wall assembly at the insulation cavity is R-14 where applicable) and R-13 for block or stud walls separating basements and/or garages from finished unit areas (but not for other basement walls and/or garage walls) and R-30 in ceilings below attic space and R-11 between floors. Insulation is not installed between lower and upper floors of townhouse models. (B) For slab on grade floors, the Seller installs 1" rigid foam perimeter insulation, which is manufactured to have a minimum R value of R-5, downward from the top of the slab for a minimum distance of 24 inches or downward to the bottom of the slab then horizontally beneath the slab for a minimum total distance of 24 inches. The primary entrance door is an insulated steel sheathed door and is fully weather stripped. Windows and sliding doors are dual glazed and thermally broken. Anti-air infiltration measures taken include the installation of a sill seal. (C) The manufactured thickness of the above types of insulation is as follows: R-13 is 3 5/8"; R-11 is 3 1/2"; R-30 is 9"; rigid foam perimeter insulation is 1".

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

27. ATTORNEY REVIEW CLAUSE—

A. Study by Attorney: The Buyer or the Seller may choose to have an attorney study this contract. If an attorney is consulted, the attorney must complete his or her review of the contract within a three-day period. This contract will be legally binding at the end of this three-day period unless an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of the contract.

B. Counting the Time: You count the three days from the date of delivery of the signed contract to the Buyer and the Seller. You do not count Saturdays, Sundays or legal holidays. The Buyer and the Seller may agree in writing to extend the three-day period for attorney review.

C. Notice of Disapproval: If an attorney for the Buyer or the Seller reviews and disapproves of this contract, the attorney must notify the Broker(s) and the Seller within the three-day period. Otherwise this contract will be legally binding as written. The attorney must send the notice of disapproval to the Broker(s) and Seller at the complex's Sales Office (not to the below address) by certified mail, by telegram, or by delivering it personally. The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS — All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Midlantic National Bank, 499 Thornall Street, Edison, NJ 08818, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

25. AFFORDABLE UNITS—Society Hill at University Heights III includes up to 76 residential dwellings which are subject to an affordable housing agreement with the City of Newark. These affordable units have second mortgage and other restrictions which will limit their resale price. The affordable units will pay thirty-three and one-third (33 1/3%) percent of the total individual unit assessment which would have been levied upon all condominium units in Society Hill at University Heights III had such assessment been allocated equally to each and every condominium unit both market and affordable. The owners or residents of the affordable units will be entitled to the same rights and subject to the same rules and regulations, except as provided for in the Master Deed and Bylaws for Society Hill at University Heights III, as the owners or residents of the market units.

26. OWNER/INVESTOR REPRESENTATION—The Seller is seeking to limit the number of non-owner occupied unit purchasers to 20%. Buyers who will not occupy the unit as their primary residence shall be required to deposit 20% of the total purchase price at time of contract execution, while Buyers who will occupy the unit as their primary residence shall deposit 10% of the total purchase price at contract execution. For this Purchase Agreement to be operative, the following affidavit regarding residency must be fully completed, executed and notarized.

The telegram or certified letter will be effective upon sending. The personal delivery will be effective upon delivery to the Broker's or Seller's offices. The attorney should also inform the Broker(s) and Seller of any suggested revisions in the contract that would make it satisfactory.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Commission Expires Sept. 10, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction ~~(will)~~ (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.

THIS IS A LEGALLY BINDING CONTRACT THAT WILL BECOME FINAL WITHIN THREE (3) BUSINESS DAYS. DURING THIS PERIOD YOU MAY CHOOSE TO CONSULT AN ATTORNEY WHO CAN REVIEW AND CANCEL THE CONTRACT. SEE SECTION ON ATTORNEY REVIEW FOR DETAILS. YOU HAVE ADDITIONAL RESCISSION RIGHTS AS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT AND IN THE PUBLIC OFFERING STATEMENT.

1. DEPOSITS—All deposits shall be held in escrow (i.e., in trust) in "Society Hill at University Heights III Escrow Account" at Chemical Bank of New Jersey, N.A., 334 Madison Avenue, Morristown, New Jersey 07960, as escrow agent for K. Hovnanian at Newark Urban Renewal Corporation III, Inc. until closing of title or termination of this Contract, or until a bond or other guarantee acceptable to the Division of Housing and Development of the New Jersey Department of Community Affairs is provided. In no event shall the escrow be released prior to the expiration of the seven-day cancellation period. Interest accrued from such deposits shall belong to Seller and shall not be credited towards the purchase price.

2. CLOSING CHARGES—If this is a cash sale, and Buyer desires title search, title examination, title insurance policy, survey, or survey certification, Buyer will pay the costs for same. If this is a mortgage sale, Buyer will pay the expenses in the preceding sentence and also mortgage application fee, credit report, appraisal, mortgage title insurance and any fees or costs required by mortgagee. These fees expressly exclude escrows and prepaid charges incidental to a mortgage closing.

3. ADJUSTMENT—Taxes for the current year, municipal assessments, maintenance fees, utilities, water and sewer charges, and interest, if any, are to be apportioned as of the date of closing. (Taxes will probably not be billed by the City until after the closing.)

4. CLOSING OF TITLE—Closing of title is to take place immediately after completion of the unit at the time, date and place specified by Seller in notice to Buyer but in no event prior to the estimated completion date as stated on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS without Buyer's consent. Completion shall be evidenced by a Certificate of Occupancy issued by the Municipality, which may be a temporary Certificate of Occupancy. Neither Seller nor mortgagee supplies or pays for Buyer's attorney. Buyer may have his own attorney at Buyer's own expense. The Buyer will close title even if all site improvements and other improvements have not been completed. By way of compliance with the Interstate Land Sales Act, the Seller states that this Agreement is for the sale of a condominium unit on improved land which the Seller, if there are no unanticipated circumstances totally outside of the control of the Seller, is obligated to erect within a period of two years. If Buyer is unable or refuses to close on the date and the time specified by Seller as set forth above, at Seller's option, Seller may exercise its rights set forth in paragraph 12 below or have Buyer reimburse Seller at or prior to closing for the total reasonable carrying and administrative costs for postponing the closing to another time, date and place specified by Seller which sum shall not exceed 10% of the total purchase price plus optional upgrades ordered and installed in the Unit. Proceeds of closing are to be paid to Seller only by certified or bank cashiers check. Uncertified attorney's trust account or other checks are not acceptable.

5. TITLE—Seller agrees to deliver a Bargain and Sale Deed with Covenant Against Grantor's Acts, Affidavit of Title, and Corporate Resolution at closing of title. Title shall be good and marketable such as will be insured at regular rates by a reputable title company licensed to do business in the State of New Jersey. The willingness of Eastern Title Agency, Inc., One Industrial Way West, Building B, Eatontown, New Jersey 07724, as agent for First American Title Insurance Company, to insure title to the premises shall constitute good and marketable title. Buyer is not obligated to obtain title insurance from Eastern Title Agency, Inc., which is an affiliate of the Seller.

6. POSSESSION—Possession will be given by delivery of the Deed upon completion of final closing and receipt of the full purchase price by the Seller as provided for in this Agreement, together with all closing costs.

7. BUYER'S REPRESENTATION—Buyer represents that he has received a copy of the Public Offering Statement, the Master Deed and Bylaws (the "Documents") and that he will comply with the terms of the Documents.

8. CHANGES IN PLANS—Seller shall have the right to make substitution of materials, equipment or make design changes whenever Seller shall find it necessary or expedient in its absolute discretion, provided that such substitutions or changes are of comparable or better quality. Furnishings, of course, are not included.

9. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY—The risk of loss or damage to the property by fire or otherwise until closing of title is on the Seller.

10. MEMBERSHIP IN SOCIETY HILL AT UNIVERSITY HEIGHTS CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION III, INC.—Upon closing of title, Buyer will automatically become a member of Society Hill at University Heights Condominium Association III, Inc. (the "Association"). The Association will provide supervision, fiscal and general maintenance and management for any recreation areas, common areas, and Association owned lands, including the assessing and collection of common expenses, and has the authority to promulgate rules and regulations as to the use of any recreational areas and common areas of the development. At closing of title, Seller shall collect on behalf of the Association a non-refundable maintenance deposit in an amount equal to three (3) months estimated maintenance fees. This deposit will be administered in accordance with the Master Deed and the Bylaws of the Association.

11. LICENSE—The Buyer does hereby authorize and grant to the Seller the irrevocable right to enter into, upon, over or under the premises for a period of two (2) years after the date of closing on prior notice to Buyer and at reasonable hours (except in cases of emergency) for the completion of construction, repair, emergency matters or pursuant to governmental order or requirement. This provision shall survive closing.

12. DEFAULT OF BUYER—Should Buyer fail to make payments, violate any of the conditions or covenants or fail, for any reason, to close title (i.e., complete the purchase) according to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, the Buyer will be in default (i.e., will have broken Buyer's promises in this agreement). If the Buyer is in default, the Seller may retain payments made by Buyer, but not more than ten (10%) percent of the purchase price, plus the amount of any options or upgrades installed by Seller. Seller will retain the money either on account of the purchase price or as liquidated damages. Liquidated damages are a fixed amount to be paid to Seller which the parties agree will be a reasonable estimate of the damages in the event of Buyer's default, since Seller's actual damages would be difficult to establish. If Seller elects to retain money as liquidated damages, this contract shall become null and void in which event the Seller agrees to return to Buyer all remaining money, if any.

13. SELLER'S INABILITY TO DELIVER DEED—If Seller's title proves unmarketable, or if Seller does not construct, complete, or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. This must be done by serving written notice of cancellation upon the Seller within fifteen (15) calendar days after the date which is six (6) months following the specified Estimated Completion Date. In the event that Buyer elects to cancel this Agreement as described in the preceding sentence, Seller's sole obligation shall be to return all deposit monies paid under this Agreement, without interest, and reimburse Buyer for the actual cost of title search and survey, if any, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 13 and this contract shall become null and void. If this Agreement is not cancelled as described in this paragraph, then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and Seller will not be responsible for any expenses which the Buyer might incur as a result of the delay in closing. The phrase "for any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

14. INCREASE IN TOTAL PURCHASE PRICE—If Seller is or will be unable to construct, complete or convey the dwelling unit referred to in this Agreement within six (6) months of the date specified on the Summary of Basic Provisions as the Estimated Completion Date due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller, Seller may increase the Total Purchase Price of the unit in accordance with the terms of this paragraph. The phrase "due to any reason beyond the control of the Seller" is hereby defined as including but not limited to any governmental body or agency's imposition of a moratorium on construction or any such body or agency's failure to issue or its revocation or suspension of any permits and/or approvals necessary for the Seller to perform its obligation in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

The Seller must give the Buyer written notice of the increase in the Total Purchase Price at least sixty (60) days prior to closing of title. In no event shall any such increase take effect during the six (6) month period following the Estimated Completion Date. If the Buyer does not wish to pay the increase, the Buyer may elect to cancel this Agreement. In order to cancel this Agreement, the Buyer must provide the Seller with written notice. To be effective, the written notice of cancellation must be received by the Seller no more than ten (10) days after the Buyer received notice of the price increase. If a notice of cancellation is not received by the Seller during that ten (10) day period, the Buyer will have agreed to pay the increased Total Purchase Price specified in the notice of increase. The increased Total Purchase Price will be substituted for that specified in the Summary of Basic Provisions. The amount of the increase will be added to the balance due which the Buyer must pay in cash at closing of title.

If the Buyer provides a proper notice of cancellation, the Seller will promptly refund all deposit monies paid, without interest, within 10 business days of Seller's receipt of Buyer's notice of cancellation pursuant to this paragraph 14. When the Buyer has received this refund, neither the Seller nor the Buyer will have any further obligation to one another under this Agreement.

15. ASSIGNMENT—Buyer expressly agrees not to assign, sell or in any manner transfer this Agreement or any right, title and interest in this Agreement.

16. NO CLOUD ON TITLE-LIENS—If the property is subject to a mortgage or other lien (i.e., legal claim) at time of closing of title, the mortgage or other lien shall not constitute a title defect, but may be satisfied from the proceeds of sale.

17. DECORATOR SELECTIONS—Buyer agrees to make decorator, appliance and extra item selections when requested to do so by Seller. If Buyer fails to make such selections within the time period requested by Seller, Buyer hereby agrees that Seller shall make such selections for Buyer and Buyer agrees to accept such selections.

18. WARRANTIES—Seller shall warrant the construction to the Buyer as provided in the New Home Warranty and Builders' Registration Act, N.J.S.A. 46:3B-1 et. seq. (the "Warranty Act"). Seller also warrants the construction of the common facilities for a period of two (2) years from the date of completion of each facility and that they are fit for their intended use. Further, the Seller warrants the following to be free from defects due to material and workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of closing: outbuildings, driveways, walkways, patios, retaining walls and fences, if any. Seller also warrants that all drainage is proper and adequate and that offsite improvements, if any, are free from defects for a period of one year from the date of construction. Except as stated in this Agreement, there are no other warranties, express or implied. In particular, there is no implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose, nor is there any implied warranty of merchantability. While Seller maintains control of the Board of Trustees of the Association, he shall take no action which adversely affects a homeowner's rights under the Warranty Act. Claims relative to defects in common elements shall be processed in accordance with N.J.A.C. 5:25-5.5.

19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT REPRESENTATIONS—This Agreement, any Riders attached to this writing and the Application for Registration filed with the New Jersey Division of Housing and Development contain the entire agreement between the parties. Any modification of this Agreement shall not be binding unless such modification shall be in writing and signed by both the Buyer and an officer of Seller. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties respective heirs, successors, administrators and executors. Neither this Agreement nor any document referencing this Agreement shall be recorded in any public office; violation of this provision will be deemed a material default of this Agreement.

20. SITE VISITS—No Buyer nor contractor designated by the Buyer shall be allowed to do any work whatever in any home prior to closing of title. Insurance regulations preclude Buyer entry into homes under construction without being accompanied by Seller's Representative. Visits to a unit under construction are limited to one (1) visit except for the preoccupancy inspection (see paragraph 21, below) prior to closing of title and are not allowed after the commencement of the final finish stage of construction and shall not occur after 11 AM on any weekend day. (All visits shall be by appointment only.) It is expressly agreed that a breach of this paragraph shall constitute a default under this Agreement.

21. PREOCCUPANCY INSPECTION—Seller will specify the time and date for a walk-through inspection of the property by Buyer. This inspection will be conducted on the date of closing or no more than three (3) days prior thereto at Seller's election. Those items which may be required to be completed or repaired in order to satisfy building code or Warranty Act standards will be entered on a preoccupancy inspection report. The listed items will be repaired or completed as soon as possible after closing. Defects in painted surfaces, chipped porcelain, plumbing fixtures, kitchen appliances, countertops, carpeting, flooring, chipped tiles, screens, glass surfaces or similar defects not noted on this walk through for correction are excluded from the Seller's responsibility. It is understood that the listed items shall not constitute a bar to closing of title, and that the closing of title will be held in accordance with this Agreement.

22. CHANGES IN PRICE—Buyer understands that Seller may offer similar units at prices higher or lower than this unit's purchase price.

23. MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY—This Paragraph 23 is applicable only if a "Mortgage Amount" is filled in on the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS. Buyer represents to Seller that he is in need of a mortgage to complete this transaction. Within ten (10) business days of the date on which this Agreement is fully executed, the Buyer shall make application for a mortgage commitment to an institutional lender (i.e., bank, mortgage company, savings and loan association or other financial institution which issues mortgage loans). This Agreement is contingent upon Buyer obtaining a written mortgage commitment no later than the Mortgage Contingency date, for not more than the mortgage amount stated in the SUMMARY OF BASIC PROVISIONS, at the prevailing rate of interest based upon a payment term of not less than 30 years. Seller reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to extend the Mortgage Contingency date for a period of up to 45 days beyond the original Mortgage Contingency date.

If requested by Seller, Buyer shall complete and execute an application for a mortgage loan and leave it with Seller, together with a $300.00 standby mortgage application fee, which shall be designated a "Standby Mortgage Application". The Standby Mortgage Application and fee shall be delivered to Seller within five (5) business days after the Seller's request for same. If Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment from its own lender by the Mortgage Contingency Date, or if Buyer requests that the Seller submit the Standby Mortgage Application, then Seller, in its sole discretion, shall be authorized to submit Buyer's Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender of Seller's choice, including K. Hovnanian Mortgage of N.J., Inc., an affiliate of Seller. If Buyer gets its own mortgage commitment from its own lender without Seller having submitted the Standby Mortgage Application and fee to any lender or if Seller chooses not to submit the Standby Mortgage Application to any lender, then the $300.00 Standby Mortgage Application fee shall be returned to the Buyer.

The mortgage commitment to be issued hereunder may be for any type of mortgage in use in the State of New Jersey. The term "prevailing rate of interest" is defined to mean the rate (as of the date of closing of title) charged by any institutional lender doing business in the state of New Jersey. The Buyer shall timely and fully comply with all the requests of the mortgage lender in order to determine if Buyer qualifies for such mortgage loan. Buyer shall not withdraw any loan application, or refuse any reasonable commitment offered to Buyer and shall pay any and all fees and charges in connection with such application and commitment. Seller shall have no obligation to pay any fees, costs, points or other charges in connection with Buyer's mortgage commitment, unless agreed to in writing by Seller. Buyer hereby authorizes Buyer's lending institution to release to Seller, upon Seller's request, all information contained in and regarding Buyer's mortgage loan application. In the event that Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing conditions or contingencies for which Buyer is responsible, it shall be the Buyer's obligation to satisfy such conditions or contingencies so that closing of title can take place in accordance with paragraph 4 of this Agreement. Failure of Buyer to satisfy such conditions or contingencies shall be deemed a default by Buyer. If Buyer receives a mortgage commitment containing the contingency that Buyer must sell or lease Buyer's present residence or property, and Buyer fails to satisfy such contingency and subsequently fails to complete the purchase of the unit in accordance with this Agreement, then Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement.

If this Paragraph 23 is applicable, Buyer represents that his funds available for closing will include a minimum of five (5%) percent of the purchase price from Buyer's personal funds and that Buyer will have the difference between the purchase price and any mortgage amount to be obtained available for closing. For purposes hereof, "Buyer's personal funds" shall mean any funds of Buyer other than those received as (1) a loan or (2) a gift which has been received by Buyer within one (1) year of the date of this Agreement. If Buyer is denied a mortgage commitment based upon Buyer's misrepresentations as to the above, (1) such denial shall not allow the Buyer to elect cancellation of this Purchase Agreement and (2) Buyer shall be deemed to have elected to have waived the mortgage contingency and Buyer must go ahead with the purchase (with or without a mortgage) or be deemed to be in default of this Agreement.

If Buyer notifies Seller in a writing Seller receives before the Mortgage Contingency Date that Buyer has not obtained a mortgage commitment, then Buyer shall provide Seller with proof that Buyer timely made application for a mortgage commitment and proof that such application was either denied or is still awaiting determination. Buyer shall also advise Seller in writing whether Buyer: (a) elects to waive (i.e., give up) the mortgage contingency and go ahead with the purchase without a mortgage; or (b) requests cancellation of the Agreement and return of all deposits paid without penalty; or (c) requests an extension of the Mortgage Contingency Date. Any request to extend the Mortgage Contingency Date must be in writing and received by Seller before the Mortgage Contingency Date. No mortgage contingency shall be extended to a new date unless specifically agreed to in writing by Seller before the then current Mortgage Contingency Date is reached.

If Buyer elects to waive the Mortgage Contingency, then the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect without any mortgage contingency and Buyer must go forward with the purchase. If Buyer requests cancellation of the Agreement, then Seller shall have five (5) business days to: (1) agree to return all deposit monies without interest and cancel this Agreement, or (2) direct Buyer to apply for a mortgage commitment consistent with the term, amount, and interest rate criteria as set forth above at a lending institution selected by Seller, and Buyer agrees to execute all documents, timely and fully comply with all reasonable requests of such lender, and pay all reasonable fees and costs in connection with this application, or (3) agree to take back a purchase money mortgage from the Buyer at the then prevailing rate of interest in which case Buyer must go forward with the purchase. In the event a mortgage commitment is not obtained within 60 days from the date of second application or if Seller elects not to take back a mortgage, Seller shall return all deposit monies to the Buyer without interest and this Agreement shall be of no further effect.

FAILURE OF BUYER TO NOTIFY SELLER IN WRITING ON OR BEFORE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY DATE THAT A MORTGAGE COMMITMENT HAS NOT BEEN OBTAINED SHALL CONSTITUTE AN ELECTION BY BUYER TO WAIVE THE MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY AND THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT WITHOUT ANY MORTGAGE CONTINGENCY. THIS MEANS THAT BUYER MUST GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, EVEN WITHOUT A MORTGAGE. IF BUYER DOES NOT GO FORWARD WITH THE PURCHASE, HE WILL BE IN DEFAULT.

The issuance of a mortgage commitment to Buyer which conforms to the terms set forth above shall constitute full satisfaction of this paragraph 23 and Buyer will be required to go forward with the purchase. If the mortgage commitment is later withdrawn, cancelled, terminated or if it lapses for any reason, including but not limited to a change in the Buyer's financial status, and Buyer fails to close title, Buyer shall be in default of this Agreement. However, Buyer shall not be in default if the mortgage commitment is cancelled or terminated due to Seller's failure to timely close title in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

NOTARY PUBLIC OF NEW JERSEY
My Comm. Expires Sept. 18, 1994

I, the undersigned Buyer(s), being duly sworn upon my oath under law, hereby state that the unit referenced in this transaction (will) (will not) be occupied as their primary residence upon closing of title. Any misrepresentation or change by the undersigned Buyer(s) as to this fact shall be a material breach of this agreement and shall constitute a default. This representation shall survive closing of title. If the default occurs prior to closing, such default shall result in the forfeiture of all deposits up to 10% of the total purchase price in addition to 100% of options and upgrades installed as liquidated damages and the contract shall be null and void. If the Buyer(s) has represented that he will occupy the unit and fails to do so within thirty (30) days of closing of title, the Seller reserves all rights and remedies at law and in equity, including rescission (i.e., cancellation of the transaction), inasmuch as Buyer's representation that he will occupy the unit was a material reason for Seller having entered into the Contract of Sale.
